The mix of European elegance and Latin spice in Buenos Aires will present three days in one of South America's most versatile cities, bursting with character and rich in culture.

From the capital to the world's most southern city, Ushuaia's tranquil beauty is set among white-capped mountains and diamond-scattered waters.

The Stella Australis cruise will sweep you across one of the most scenic waterways in the world over three days, exposing brilliant blue skies and an array of wildlife; a testimony to Latin America's raw beauty.

Punta Arenas will welcome you back to land which will take you to Torres del Paine where horse-riding and hiking surrounded by spectacular flora, fauna and incredible landscapes will leave you wanting to see more and inspire you to continue this journey back across to the Argentinian side of Patagonia.
