Beginning in Rio de Janeiro, with the aim to introduce you to the Carioca way of life, sightseeing, dancing and sunbathing should inject some Latin flare for a kick-start to a cultural discovery of Brazil.

Chapada Diamantina will have you surrounded by breathtaking landscapes, magical grottos and stunning mountain ranges with idyllic spots for sunsets. With a few days spent hiking and exploring, Salvador will let you lift your feet up and take a breath, enjoying the cities beautiful colonial and baroque architecture, delicious local food and basking in the Bahian slow-paced way of life.

A journey across Bahian hinterlands, sugarcane plantations, peaceful Colonial towns and busy country markets will take you westwards until you arrive in Cachoeira, nestled deep in the valley of the Paraguaçu River, the jewel of the Bahian hinterland. Spending the day and night here will have you journeying back in time to the Brazil of yesterday before concluding your holiday in beach paradise on the island of Boipeba.
