CUBA

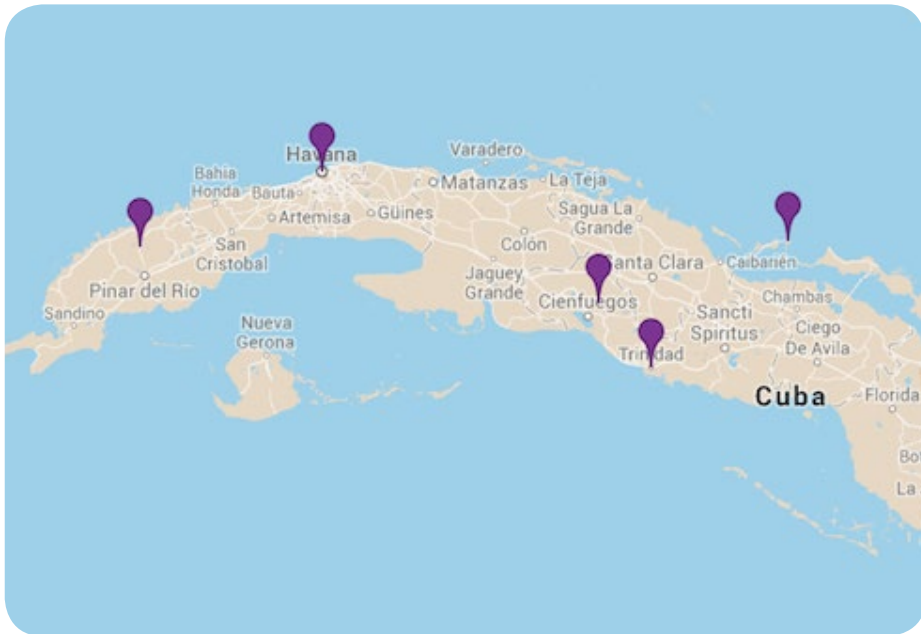

Culture and Castaway

11 days from £4,895 per person (incl. economy class international & domestic flights)

Clichés of cigars, communism and vintage cars, spiced up with salsa rhythms, cocktails and rum-fuelled ‘Rumbas’ are but one face of this curious Caribbean island. Discover the best of cuisine, arts and culture in Cuba’s historical cities and towns. Relax in the glorious island beaches of Cayo Santa Maria and see some of the beautiful and diverse scenery that Cuba has to offer.

Highlights

Havana, Cienfuegos, Trinidad, Cayo Santa Maria, Pinar del Rio

Havana is a city rich in architecture and full of character. The old town is a meshwork of cobbled streets, colourful buildings and stunning churches, palaces and little plazas. You’ll learn about the history of the city through the eyes of a local architect and discover Cuban life by meeting contemporary Cuban artists in their homes and studios.

Cienfuegos sets a different tone: this charming town will welcome you with its beautiful bay, botanical gardens and magnificently restored main square for an enchanting stay in tranquil surroundings.

The historic town of Trinidad celebrates the 500th anniversary of its foundation in 2014. Wander along cobbled streets, dotted with charming casas and historic buildings, join the hustle and bustle of its plazas and cast off across its blue waters by sailboat.

A beautiful drive through the mountains and a national park will bring you to Cayo Santo Maria on the north coast. This island is blessed with exquisite beaches of pristine white sand and turquoise waters – perfect for a couple of days of downtime to recharge your batteries.

Returning to Havana, you will see some spectacular views on the Hemingway tour. Take a day trip to the tobacco-growing region of Pinar del Rio and the pretty valley of Viñales. Before your return, you will experience a ‘food tour’ of the Cuban gastronomic revolution.
