DISCOVER THE ESSENCE OF LATIN AMERICA

ARGENTINA | BRAZIL

Glaciers, a capital city, wetland wildlife and the Falls

14 days from £4,250 per person incl. economy class international & domestic flights.

Starting in El Calafate, where the most phenomenal Glacial fortresses and clean-spread, star-lit skies will have you at one with nature, the journey through Patagonia will take you across to the Estancia Cristina, where the doors of your 4x4 will be the only thing separating you from enchantingly turquoise lakes and white tipped mountains.

From this nature-bound segment of the trip, a little down-time in Argentina's vivacious capital, Buenos Aires, will give you time to indulge in gastronomic delights. Enjoy an evening of tango and strolling through streets lined with French-style buildings. Bringing you back to the harmonious tones of the wild, leaving the city behind, the Rincón del Socorro in Corrientes should have you on your feet (or at least horseback) with the opportunity to see wildlife up and close, breathtaking sunsets and nature walks in vivid tropical surroundings.

Driving from Rincón del Socorro will take you across Argentinian soil to Iguassu in Brazil. Nothing short of incredible, the falls are one of the most imposing sights in South America. A UNESCO-listed natural World Heritage Site shared by both Argentina and Brazil, these Falls are captivating to see, hear and discover. A memorable finale to a once in a lifetime trip.

A family holiday from the open-road in Patagonia to the vivacious city-streets of Buenos Aires, the wildlife of the wetlands and to the impressive cascades of Iguassu at the Brazilian-Argentinian border.

Highlights

Patagonia, Buenos Aires, Ibera Wetlands, Iguassu Falls
